Mrs. Ashenherst recently wrote: "It is with pleasure I write to inform you of the good Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has done me. I was practically run down with dyspepsia and stomach trouble. I received no benefit from the doctors, so I decided to give them up and take Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. It has done me more good than all the doctors and other medicines."

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain, great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a malt essence, which is the most effective tonic stimulant and invigorator known to science; softened by warmth and moisture, its palatability and freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

It is invaluable for overworked men, delicate women and sickly children. It strengthens and sustains the system; is a promoter of health and longevity; makes the old young and keeps the young strong.

CAUTION—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It is the only absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey, and is sold in large sealed bottles only; never in bulk. Price $1.00. Look for the trade-mark the "Old Chemist," on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Write Consulting Physician, Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. The Artistic Poison.
Passing by other drugs, each of which has its own way of making people crazy, we come to what may be truly termed the artistic poison. This is, says Dr. William H. Thomson in Everybody's Magazine, the mesal cactus in the valley of the Rio Grande and fortunately is scarce and hard to get. Chewing this button causes the most gorgeously colored scenes to appear before the entranced vision, far surpassing, according to descriptions, the most magnificent sunsets. It would seem to be the drug for landscape painters, but unfortunately, whatever other things drugs do, they never increase efficiency. It was first discovered among the Kiowa tribe of Indians, who used it in their religious rites till missionaries induced the government to remove the Indians from where they could get it.

PRESIDENT OF LUMBER COMPANY IS MISSING

O. N. Hill, of Acree-Hill Lumber Co., Is Gone From Mobile.

It is Claimed That Indebtedness of Mill Will Aggregate at Least $10,000—He Has Not Been Seen in Mobile in Several Weeks.

Special to The Journal.
Mobile, Oct. 16.—The whereabouts of O. N. Hill, said to be the president and general manager of the Acree-Hill Lumber Company, is causing considerable anxiety among creditors of the concern in the state and several other southern lumber sections. Hill has not been at his office since September 8.

It was reported today that criminal and bankruptcy proceedings are to be filed against Mr. Hill unless he appears very soon and straightens out some affairs concerning his business operations. Several firms of local attorneys have claims against the company and it was stated that through one firm charges of using the mails to defraud have been made before the federal authorities. United States Commissioner Richard Jones, when asked as to the accuracy of the report concerning the fraudulent charge and whether warrants had been issued for Hill, replied that he had nothing to say upon the subject.

The Acree-Hill Lumber Company maintained offices in room 209 of the City Bank and Trust Company building. Persons occupying an adjoining office could not say as to Hill's whereabouts but did say that he had not been seen around the office for a week or more. The desks in the office were clean as if not having been in use for some time.

Warrants Are Out.

It is known that warrants charging Hill with the fraudulent use of the mails have been issued and warrants are also said to have been issued at the instance of alleged victims of the firm in Montgomery.

From what could be ascertained the Acree-Hill Lumber Company did not buy to any extent in what is known as the Mobile lumber district, but on the contrary bought heavily in other districts in the state and in Georgia and Florida. Among Hill's alleged transactions was said to be the purchase of seventeen car loads of lumber from a Georgia firm at a cost of $16 per thousand feet and this, it was said, the firm, if there are any other members, sold at a much lower price and so far as known, this time have made no returns. There are many reports concerning the method of the Acree-Hill Lumber Company current today and there was much activity in some circles. From the name Acree it might be assumed that J. O. Acree, well known in local lumber circles, was connected with the concern, but this is not the case. While Mr. Acree could not be located, it was stated that he was not a member of the firm and that his name was used by the concern following the sale of his business.

Bankruptcy proceedings against the lumber company will, it was said, be filed in the United States district court this afternoon or tomorrow. They are being prepared by local attorneys representing creditors of the company.

While the extent of the indebtedness of Hill is not given out by those concerned, it was learned that it will range from $10,000 to $20,000. And there is nothing in the way of assets so far as could be ascertained. O. N. Hill will be readily recalled as the young man who came into prominence in this city in May last following his arrest by the local authorities on a warrant issued by a member of the firm with which he was then identified charging the alteration of a check.

A former associate of Hill, who said: "I've never had any great luck," declared the pessimist. "Neither have I," admitted the optimist. "Made my money by hard work and advertising,"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF WORKS

Lengthy Session Held Last Night and Many Matters Discussed.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Board of Public Works was held last night in the city clerk's office. Chairman Daniels presided and Messrs. Forbes, O'Leary, Pines and Walker were present.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted, with the exception that the permission granted to Gus Soderlund to move sand and dirt be conducted under the supervision of the street superintendent.

A communication from Mayor C. C. Goodman, referring to the bad condition of the street in front of his house, was referred to the street superintendent with instructions to afford the relief asked.

A communication from the Board of Public Safety asking that repairs be made to truck house No. 3 was referred to the building inspector.

A communication from the council informing the board that its request for an appropriation to cover the cost of constructing a walk and wall around the city jail was granted. The city engineer was instructed to inform McReynolds & Houseman, the successful bidders for this work, to commence same within three days.

A decision rendered by the city attorney stated that the police department was vested with power to say what city prisoners should be employed to perform convict labor for the city.

Permission was granted Walker Ingraham to make temporary repairs to a sidewalk on Chase and Spring streets.

The city engineer reported that the specifications for concrete walks in the city were completed. This matter is now in the hands of the city attorney and will be reported upon by him at a future meeting of the board, when bids will be asked for.

The city engineer was instructed to ask for bids for a lot of drinking troughs.

The Gadsden Street Methodist church asked permission to erect a tent at the corner of Garden and Palafox streets during the coming Mardi Gras carnival. The request was granted, Mr. O'Leary voting no.

A communication from an out-of-town insurance company offering rates on insuring the boilers installed in the city jail and city hall was referred to the clerk with instructions to inform the company that no insurance would be taken.

A scrubbing machine, to be used in scrubbing the tile floors in the city buildings, was ordered leased at a cost of $50 per month.

Permission was granted to Hooton & Watson to make temporary repairs to a sidewalk on West Romana street.

A communication from C. J. Levy, citing the impassable condition of crossing on Ninth avenue during wet weather, was referred to the street superintendent with power to act.

The Pensacola Electric Company presented a bill for $14.75 for damages to trees by city employees in trimming trees. Action on this bill was deferred.

A communication from Street Superintendent Burns informed the board that the Pensacola Electric Company, Southern Bell Telephone Company, Western Union Telegraph Company and the Postal Telegraph Company were delinquent in the payment of taxes on poles erected in the city. He also said that these companies were not complying with the city ordinance requiring that poles be painted to a certain height. The clerk was ordered to communicate with the comptroller to ascertain if the taxes due on poles owned by these companies had been paid, and if not, to investigate the ordinance requiring the painting of poles.

He Weller-Kahn Company was granted a permit to make an addition to its building on South Palafox street.

The request of E. W. Peake to erect a boat house on West Cedar street was granted, provided the structure is erected on private property.

Mr. Forbes, of the special committee on street sprinkling, reported that two sprinklers are now in commission, and that a new sprinkler has been purchased to replace the old one now being used. The board decided that the sprinklers be operated under its direction and four mules were ordered purchased for use in this work.

Mr. Walker asked if the cost of water for sprinkling the streets was charged to the board's appropriation for the year. He was informed by Chairman Daniels that both the cost of water for this purpose and that used by the fire department was charged against the amount appropriated for use by the board.

Street Superintendent Burns asked permission to purchase a stronger grade of brooms to be used in sweeping the pavement, stating that the brooms recently purchased by the mayor were too weak for this work, since the street sprinklers were put in commission. He said that the works of sprinkling the streets was being overdone by too much water being poured on the pavement. When asked who requested the mayor to purchase the last consignment of brooms, Mr. Burns replied that he did not know. No member of the board had any knowledge of the purchase of brooms by the mayor. This caused Mr. Walker to enter a strong protest against anyone making purchases for the board without first securing the "O. K." of the chairman, stating that such privilege would allow the board's appropriation for the month to exceed the figure intended to cover the expenditures for that period. He said that if this privilege was allowed "the mayor could buy a car load of monkeys and the board could not challenge his right to buy them." He said that the chairman should know what the board buys. Chairman Daniels said that he did not believe the mayor was anxious to buy useless things for the board. The street superintendent was asked how many useless brooms he had on hand, left from the recent purchase by the mayor, and he replied: "Six dozen."

A motion made by Mr. Walker that "All articles for use by the street superintendent receive the 'O. K.' of the chairman," was adopted. The street superintendent was instructed to select the grade of brooms required and request the mayor to buy them.

A communication from the assistant postmaster asking where mail boxes should be placed upon certain streets was referred to the city engineer.

The water plug at the northeast corner of Garden and Spring streets was ordered placed in right position. Chairman Daniels reported the bad condition of the sidewalk on the north side of Wright street, between Hayne and Alcazar. He particularly referred to that portion in front of the Garfield ice factory, stating that the board and city jointly were responsible for the condition now existing. Mr. Walker said that the sidewalk at this point was used very much by drays in unloading freight from cars, people being forced to walk in the street. He said that conditions at this point were worse than if no sidewalk was there. The matter was referred to the street superintendent with power

HELPFUL ADVICE

You won't tell your family doctor the whole story about your private illness—you are too modest. You need not be afraid to tell Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., the things you could not explain to the doctor. Your letter will be held in the strictest confidence. From her vast correspondence with sick women during the past thirty years she may have gained the very knowledge that will help your case. Such letters as the following, from grateful women, establish beyond a doubt the power of

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND to conquer all female diseases. Mrs. Norman R. Barndt, of Allentown, Pa., writes:

"Ever since I was sixteen years of age I have suffered from an organic derangement and female weakness; in consequence I had dreadful headaches and was extremely nervous. My physician said I must go through an operation to get well. A friend told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I took it and wrote you for advice, following your directions carefully, and thanks to you I am today a well woman, and I am telling all my friends of my experience."

The A B C and X Y Z of ADVERTISING

A SERIES OF TEN TALKS ON ADVERTISING No. 3

written by Seymour Eaton of Philadelphia

The owner of a retail hat store writes me to ask how to advertise hats.

I don't know. I haven't thought much about hats. Ten to one I should do something revolutionary; perhaps advertise to buy the customer's old hat. As a rule he is glad to get rid of it. Of course that would cut the profit in two, but then the sales would multiply by ten, or perhaps by fifty, and the store would get talked about.

Perhaps I wouldn't do that at all. I make the suggestion simply to let this hat dealer know that if I owned his store I should get up and shake myself; make some sort of a noise; not stand around behind the counter leaning on everything, waiting for a customer who is six blocks away on the other side of the street going north to change his mind, come back, cross over, and by mere chance in his hurry notice that I have hats in my window.

Tell a hundred thousand men who wear hats and who buy two hundred thousand hats a year that you have the goods; the kind they are looking for. If that doesn't wake them up then give away a hat-band and a necktie and a pair of gloves; cram the hats full of ham sandwiches; do something. Your business is to sell hats, not store them.

I have no patience with the retail dealer who depends on the sidewalk and the weather for his trade.

But it isn't necessary to be sensational; simply make readable news of your advertising. It is the business of the newspapers to distribute news and if I want a moderate priced stylish hat your advertising is ten times more interesting to me than the Associated Press dispatch that some galoot in Oklahoma or Texas hanged himself.

Good advertising is news. Print this on the ceiling over your bed so that you will read it first thing every morning when you wake up.

Keep your eye on fashion.

Fashion is today the biggest influence in the world; not necessarily the best influence; but the biggest. We don't control fashion; fashion controls us. It always comes down the pike with a whirl. When the storm breaks haul in your advertising canvas and stop buying. Fashion hurricanes are short-lived.

and other pains, all over a woman's body, are often caused by some, not well understood, female disease.

No one can tell just where female trouble will affect you. It acts in a different way on different people. Hence, treating the symptoms gives but little benefit, and the most successful method may be said to be the treatment of the cause—which you may do, by taking Cardui.

What Cardui has done for other women, it ought surely to do for you. Mrs. M. E. Allred, of Hartford,

Wash., writes: "Ever since I was 16 years old, I have suffered from female troubles. I had headache, backache and other troubles, every month. Some two years ago, I began to use Cardui, and since then I have had no backache, my other troubles have stopped, I don't need any medicine, and I'm well."
